

Habitat Recovery & Hiking

Trinity River Audubon Center

Location (if applicable)	Trinity River Audubon Center 6500 S Great Trinity Forest Way, Dallas, TX 75217 https://trinityriver.audubon.org/
Date	Saturday, March 4 th , 9am-1pm
Register by	February 24 th at 12pm
Pre-trip meeting and Cancellation deadline	February 28 th at 9pm Activity Center Multipurpose Green room
Description of activity	Explore the amazing resources of the 6,000-acre Great Trinity Forest, the largest urban hardwood forest in the United States. The center's 130 acres is a haven for a vast array of birds and other wildlife in an increasingly urbanized metropolitan area. Give back with habitat management followed by a hike!
Degree of difficulty	Intermediate
Physical activity level	Moderate
Cost	Member: $10 Non-Member: $20 Includes lunch and park entrance fee
What to wear or bring	Closed toed shoes, gloves, hat, sunscreen, bug spray, water, snacks, etc. Specific items for this excursion: Hiking: Climbing poles, backpack, etc.
Other considerations	Typical March weather in Dallas: High of 73 and low of 54

All forms and waivers must be completed and submitted prior to the excursion date. Participants wearing inadequate or inappropriate clothing will not be allowed to participate.

Participants are expected to abide by a code of conduct determined by UREC at the pre-trip meeting.

Excursion details subject to change.

For more information, please contact UREC Outdoor Programs at URECOutdoors@utdallas.edu