UT Dallas – UREC Aquatics

Swim lessons information

• All students must wear proper swimming attire.

• All students must comply with pool rules. Lifeguards have final authority on all policies.

• Parking passes are provided for Monday-Thursday classes. If you park on campus and do not have a parking permit, you will need to pick up a temporary parking pass from the Visitors Center.

• The University of Texas at Dallas UREC-Aquatics will not take custodial responsibility of minors participating in swim lessons. We require an adult guardian to be present at all times during the lessons for their safety. Please make sure the child has showered and used the restroom before entering the pool.

• Parents must be present on deck during swim lessons and may sit anywhere around the pool area. We ask that you do not speak to the children or teacher while the class is in session. It distracts the children and slows the learning process.
